Hello.. Team Tripoto "The Global Community of Travellers"

I am a User Experience Designer and Front-end Developer based in Gurugram. I have been working from past three years in UX domain. I have worked across multiple sectors including education, entertainment, writing, food and travel. Currently, I am looking for new challenging opportunities where i can learn more about the upcoming era of the data-driven world. Meanwhile, I came across this opportunity from tripoto website.

Tripoto is building the world's largest community of travelers and i am sure tripoto has a great team and great work environment. After all, an inspiring and awesome team is what matters the most to me. It would be great opportunity for me to work with you.

For any further query, shoot me an email. Looking forward to a conversation soon!

Sincerely,

Tushar Hudkar
